

any time to a minor, either for his or her own use, or for the use of any other person, or to a drunkard, or to any person whose parent, guardian, husband, wife or child shall have given to such licensee a notice in writing, verified by affidavit, that such person is of intemperate habits, and requesting such licensee not to sell to him or her, or to a person visibly affected by intoxicating drinks.

682. No licensee under this sub-division of this Article shall sell or furnish to any person intoxicating liquors on any days upon which elections are now or hereafter may be required by law to be held; nor on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, except that if the licensee is a hotel keeper he may supply such liquors, to be drunk in their rooms or with their meals, to bona fide guests; nor between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock A. M. at any time; nor, except in hotels, shall conduct his business in any place to which an entrance shall be allowed other than directly from a public traveled way; provided, however, that any licensed dealer may, with the permission of the Board of Police Commissioners at any bona fide entertainment of any society, club or corporation, sell intoxicating liquors between such hours as the Board aforesaid may designate in said permit.

683. Druggists and apothecaries shall not be required to obtain license under the provisions of this sub-division of this Article, but they shall not sell intoxicating liquors, nor compound or mix any composition thereof, except upon the written prescription of a regular physician; nor more than once on any one prescription of the physician; and every druggist or apothecary shall keep a book for the special purpose and enter therein the date of every sale of intoxicating liquor made by him, the person to whom sold, the kind, quantity and price thereof, and the purpose for which it was sold, and such book shall be at all times open to the said Board, or of any person designated and authorized by them to make such inspection, and shall be produced before such Board when required; and any failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall
