

canvassers of the city, the Circuit Court for Frederick County may, by order, require said board to correct such errors or show cause why such corrections should not be made; and in event of the failure of the said board to make such correction or show cause aforesaid, said Court may compel said board, by a writ of mandamus, to correct such errors, and if said board of canvassers shall have made its determination and dissolved, said Court may compel it to reconvene for the purpose of making such corrections. For the purpose of making such corrections as the Court shall order, the meeting of the board of canvassers shall be deemed a continuation of its regular session, and the statements and certificates shall be made and filed as the Court shall direct, and, so far as the same shall vary from the original statements and certificates, the statements and certificates made under the order of Court shall stand in lieu thereof, and shall in all cases have the same effect as if such corrected statements had been a part of the original statement required by law. The practice in said cases shall be as in mandamus proceedings, and the Court shall determine the time for the speedy hearing thereof, in its discretion; and for the purpose of service of papers and other proceedings the board of canvassers, as organized and existing at the time of making the original canvass, shall be deemed a continuing board. There shall be the same right of appeal as in other mandamus cases, but such appeal shall be taken within five days from the date of the decision complained of, and shall be heard and decided by the Court of Appeals as soon after the transmission of the record as possible, and the testimony taken in such cases shall be sent up to the Court of Appeals as part of the record.
