

tively, to be designated by the judges of the Court of Appeals. After the first appointment, the Court of Appeals shall annually appoint a member of said board in the place of the examiner whose term shall expire. Members of said board shall be eligible to reappointment. In case of any vacancy in said board by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, the Court of Appeals shall fill said vacancy by the appointment of a member of said board to serve until the expiration of the term for which the person so dying or resigning had been appointed.

of law examiners.

3. All applications for admission to the bar shall be referred by the Court of Appeals to the State Board of Law Examiners, who shall examine the applicant, touching his qualifications for admission to the bar. The said board shall report their proceedings in the examination of applicants to the Court of Appeals with any recommendations said board may desire to make. If the Court of Appeals shall then find the applicant to be qualified to discharge the duties of an attorney, and to be of good moral character and worthy to be admitted, they shall pass an order admitting him to practice in all the courts of this State. The Court of Appeals shall prescribe rules providing for a uniform system of examinations in this State, which shall govern the Board of Law Examiners in the performance of its duties. The expenses of said board, including such compensation to the members thereof as the Court of Appeals may determine, shall be paid out of the fees of the applicants. No one shall be examined who shall not have studied the law in a law school in any part of the United States or in the office of a member of the bar of this State for at least three years. Every applicant, upon presenting himself for examination before the Board of Law Examiners, shall pay to the treasurer of the board such fee, not exceeding twenty-five dollars, as may be fixed by the Court of Appeals. On payment of one examination fee, the applicant shall be entitled to the privilege of three examinations, but no more. Any fraudulent act or representation by an applicant in connection with his application or examination, shall be sufficient cause for the revocation of the order admitting him to practice. The Board of Law Examiners shall render an annual account of their expenses to the Court of Appeals.

6. Members of the bar of any State, district or territory of the United States, who, for five years after admission, have been engaged as practitioners, judges or teachers of law, shall be admitted without examination on proof of good moral
