

then such Board of Supervisors of Elections shall audit his time and allow him compensation only for the time during which he has actually served.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

270 x x x x. All oaths required by this Article to be in writing shall have a certificate of the officer taking the same attached and signed by him, and said Supervisors of Elections, officers of registration and judges of election are hereby empowered to administer all oaths and affirmations required in the discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

Oaths be certified.

270 y y y y. The word "Election," as used in this Article, shall be construed to include elections had within said city for the purpose of enabling voters to choose some public officer or officers under the laws of this State, or to pass upon any law or other public act or proposition submitted to vote by law. In computing the times for notices to be given under this Article Sundays shall be included except when the day on which said notice should be given should happen to fall on Sunday, in which event the same shall be given on the Monday following; the day of giving the notice and the day of registration or election shall be excluded.

Definition of terms.

270 z z z z. In all trials for offenses against any of the provisions of this Article, or of any existing law relating to registration or elections, where such offense is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the State and defense shall each be entitled to twenty peremptory challenge of jurors.

Challenges of jurors.

270 a a a a a. At least thirty days before every city election the city attorney shall prepare full instructions for the guidance of the voters of such election as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them, and the method of gaining assistance, and as to obtaining new ballots in the place of those accidentally destroyed, with such other instructions as shall, in his opinion, be necessary and proper, said instructions shall be furnished by the Board of Supervisors of Elections, who shall respectively cause the same, together with copies of section 270 c c c, 270 d d d and 270 e e e of this Article, to be printed in large, clear type, on separate cards, to be called "Cards of Instruction," and said Board of Supervisors shall furnish twelve of the same with the ballots for use in each election precinct. They shall also cause to be printed on light cardboard or heavy-sized paper ten or more copies of the form of the ballot provided for each voting place at each election therein, which shall be called "specimen ballots," and the same shall be furnished with the other ballots prepared for each voting place.

Instructions to voters to be printed.

Specimen ballots to be printed