

Money to be paid to the improvement commission.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the money arising from the sale of said bond (which said bonds shall be sold either at auction or by sealed bids after due advertisement thereof, to the highest responsible bidders, and shall not be sold for less than their par value,) shall be paid to the Improvement Commission for water works and sewers for the town of Hyattsville, and be by them deposited in some safe banking institution. The Commissioners shall keep in a book to be kept for the purpose a full registry of the bonds sold, the serial numbers of the bonds and the names and addresses of the purchasers and amounts realized on sale.

How funds are to be applied.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the fund realized from the sale of bonds shall be applied to the purposes of this Act and none other, and shall be paid by check signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the Improvement Commission for water works and sewers for Hyattsville, only on order in writing of the said Improvement Commission; and the said Improvement Commission is authorized and empowered to adopt such orders for the payment of moneys due and payable to the contractors for the construction and establishment of said water works and sewers as shall from time to time be earned by said contractors in the prosecution of the said work, and also from time to time to adopt orders for payment for property purchased or condemned and for material and labor furnished in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. The said Improvement Commission may, in its discretion, employ a competent engineer to prepare the specification and plans for the said water works and sewers and to superintend their construction and establishment. The Improvement Commission shall invite sealed proposals, by advertisement for a reasonable length of time, for the construction of said water works and sewers, which proposal shall be sent in sealed envelopes, addressed to the president of the said Commission, and by the said Commission shall be publicly opened on the day named in said advertisement, at the office of the Town Commissioners of Hyattsville. Said proposals shall set forth the amount of money for which the parties proposing will construct such water works and sewers, or any specified part or portion thereof, according to the plans and specification submitted, and the time when said water works will be completed and ready for use; and the said Improvement Commission may reject any and all bids, or award the contract to any responsible bidder therefore, at their discretion, requiring any accepted bidder to give bond, in such penalty as said Commission shall
