

any work in any one year after he has exhausted the amount of money apportioned to his road district; and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners in charge of such respective road districts to notify the district supervisors when the amount apportioned to such districts shall be exhausted; but nothing in this Act shall prevent any supervisor from cutting or removing any trees which shall have fallen across said roads, so as to obstruct travel, nor to repair any bridge or washout at any time, if the public convenience shall require it; but whenever they have cash available all road accounts shall be paid in cash; and it is hereby made the duty of the clerk or treasurer of the Board of County Commissioners to immediately after the adjustment of said accounts, pay over to the district supervisors for said respective districts, such sums as shall be due on account of work performed and material, teams or implements for the preceding months. And the said district supervisors shall thereupon immediately pay over to the person entitled to receive the sum or amounts due them in the same manner in which he has received the sum, whether in cash or in county script. These respective County Commissioners for said county shall have general supervision of the road district supervisors in their respective commissioner's districts, and shall be allowed for such supervision the same per diem as is allowed them when attending the sessions of the Commissioners Court; provided, however, that no commissioner shall be allowed in any one year more than twenty days; and the road district supervisors shall monthly render an account to the Commissioners of all laborers by them respectively employed, and all teams hired or materials or implements purchased, which shall be paid monthly by the treasurer on the order of the County Commissioners to be distributed by said road district supervisors.
