

CHAPTER 155.

AN ACT to lay out and establish a new election district in Frederick County, out of Frederick Election District No. 2, to be called "Braddock District," or "Election District No. 24."

New election district.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new election district be laid out and established out of a portion of Frederick Election District No. 2 of Frederick county, the said new election district to be known and called by the name of "Braddock District," or "Election District No. 24."

Boundaries.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the boundaries of said Braddock district or election district No. 24 shall be as follows: Beginning on the Catoctin mountain, at a point where Jefferson district or election district No. 14 and Middletown district or election No. 3 join on the boundary of Frederick district or election district No. 2; thence running easterly with the line of "Ballenger district" No. 23 to the southeast corner of the Mount Philip farm house; thence northeasterly with the line of the said "Ballenger district," at the southeast corner of Frederick Orland's dwelling house; thence northerly following the road of the said Frederick Orland to the public road known as "Butterfly Lane;" thence northeasterly by a straight line to the Baltimore and Fredericktown turnpike road at the entrance to a private road or lane leading into the premises of W. W. Mines, on said turnpike; thence by and with the middle of said lane northwardly in a straight line to a point one hundred yards northeast of said W. W. Mines' residence; thence from said point due north by a straight line until it intersects the southern outlines of Tuscarora election district No. 21; thence by and with said outline westwardly to where it intersects the dividing line between Middletown and Frederick district, aforesaid; thence by and with the line or lines between said districts to the place of beginning. The territory within these boundaries, to be known as "Braddock district," or "Election district No. 24," as aforesaid.

Place of holding elections.

SEC. 3. And be enacted, That the place of holding elections in said "Braddock district," or "Election district No. 24," shall be Braddock.

SEC. 4 And be it enacted, That there shall be appointed for said district by the proper authorities one justice of the peace and one constable, and also registers of voters and judges and
