

their hands for collection, and on the first Tuesday in each and every month thereafter, and oftener if required by the County Commissioners, the county taxes collected by them for said county until the collections are completed, and on failure to make such monthly or other payments, each delinquent collector may be removed from office by the County Commissioners and another appointed in his stead by said Commissioners; and at the end of the time allowed for collection as aforesaid by said collectors they and each of them shall make to the County Commissioners a full and complete return under oath of the State and county taxes collected by them, of the whole amount of taxes placed in their hands for collection for the State and county since their appointment, and also an alphabetical list of all delinquent taxpayers in their respective tax collection districts and the sum due by each of them, which list the County Commissioners are authorized to have printed in at least one newspaper published in said county; and on failure to pay over to the County Treasurer and to the Treasurer of the State all taxes collected by them, and to complete within twelve months from the day of receiving said taxes for collection the collections and return of the whole amount thereof to the County Treasurer, Comptroller and State Treasurer, as hereinbefore provided, except such sums as the County Commissioners upon examination of the returns of said collectors may determine to be and to have been incollectible, their bond shall be liable for the same, and the County Commissioners and the State of Maryland may cause suit to be brought for the county and State taxes respectively so in arrear on the bonds given, as hereinbefore required, and the County Commissioners shall require each of said collectors to make a statement under oath to them on the first day of June next succeeding the levy of said taxes, of the amount of such taxes collected by them from each person, with the name of said person.

42 c. In case of the death, removal, failure or refusal to give the required bond, disqualification or failure to act, from any cause, of any tax collector elected under this Act, then in such case it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Allegany county to appoint a tax collector having the qualifications aforesaid, for the term or unexpired term for such collectorships so made vacant, as aforesaid, who shall give bond as aforesaid, and whose duties and obligations shall be the same as though he had been elected and qualified under this Act; and it is further provided that all the provisions of Article 81 of the

Authority
given
county commissioners
in case of death, etc.