The City Register shall have the keeping of the common seal of the corporation, which shall be circular in form, and shall have engraved around its margin the words "Corporation of Frederick, Maryland," and upon its centre an eagle. The corporate seal shall be used by the City Register in all cases provided by ordinance, and in all other cases where a corporate seal may be necessary. All fees by him received, shall be paid over to the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick. He shall receive and take into his charge all moneys of the said corporation, whether arising from taxes, licenses, fines and forfeitures, or in any other way whatsoever, and deposit the same in bank in the name of the Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick, to be disbursed only in payment of claims against the said corporation properly allowed, and for such purposes as may be directed by the Board of Alderman, on warrant signed by himself and countersigned by the Mayor. He shall keep a bank book to contain regular entries of all moneys by him deposited and of all checks by him drawn. He shall keep a regular and fair account in a book, or books, in folio, of all moneys by him received and expended on account of the said corporation, and shall annually or oftener if required by the Mayor, lay before him a particular account of his receipts and expenditures accompanied with the proper vouchers, his bank book and his returned crossed checks. He shall record his annual account of receipts and expenditures in a book to be kept especially for that purpose. In addition to the foregoing the City Register shall also perform such other duties pertaining to the proper administration of the duties of his office as may be required of him by the ordinances of said city.
