

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the fourth election district of said county be and the same hereby is divided into two voting precincts, to be known as the "First" and "Second" election precinct of the fourth election district of said county. The division line between the said precincts shall be the Annapolis, Washington and Baltimore Railroad, and all that portion of the fourth election district lying south of said railroad shall be known as the "First Precinct," and that portion lying north of said railroad shall be known as the "Second Precinct." The voting or polling place of the first precinct shall be the house now used as a polling house in the fourth election district. The voting or polling place of the second precinct, shall be selected by the Board of Supervisors of Election of Anne Arundel county, and shall be in the territory embraced in the said second precinct, and not more than one-half mile from the village of Odenton.

Divide into two voting
precincts.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said Board of Supervisors of Election shall make known the boundaries of said precincts, when so determined and established by them, by advertisement in one or more newspapers of said county, once a week for two successive weeks before the first day of July in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, shall appoint judges and clerks for each such voting precinct, shall notify the persons so appointed, shall give notice of the names of such judges and clerks, shall appoint the places of registration and polling places of said precincts shall give notice of the times and places for a new registration in said precincts and of the times of revision thereof, shall provide the necessary registration books, ballot-boxes, polling rooms and other necessary equipment as directed by Article thirty-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title elections, in regard to a new registration, and shall in all other respects follow the provisions of the said article, so that elections may be, as they are hereby directed to be, held hereafter in the new precincts hereby authorized and directed to be established as heretofore in other election districts and precincts of said county; provided, however, that in the judgment of said Board of Election Supervisors a new registration can be safely dispensed with in said fourth election district, but in their judgment the registered vote properly belonging to the said respective precincts of said fourth election district can be allotted to and entered by the registers thereof, upon the new registration books thereof, respectively, properly and with certainty; then in that event, the said supervisors shall not order a new registration in the

Boundaries
made known.