

finer, penalties and costs which may be imposed upon such applicant for the violation of this or any laws relating to or regulating or providing for the sale of liquors aforesaid, and no licensee under this sub-title of this article shall be permitted to open his place or sell any liquors therein between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock A. M. All applications must be filed with the clerk of the Circuit Court for licenses to sell liquors under the provisions of these sections fifteen days prior to May first, and protests, if any, against the issuing of a license to an applicant must be filed in writing five days before May first, by not less than four respectable freeholders, residing within the limits required by the applicant for obtaining signers, the application and protest to be presented by the clerk to the judge of the Circuit Court, who shall hear and determine as to whether the license applied for shall be issued or not, and shall place the costs of hearing as he may deem equitable and just. The judge of the court shall also have discretion as to issuing or of suppressing such licenses where the applicants have been convicted of or satisfactory evidence shown that they are conducting disreputable or disorderly houses. Applicants for license after May first, must file application therefor fifteen days prior to the month in which such licenses are to begin, subject to all the restrictions of this section as to license to be taken out on May first.

Extra fee
allowed
clerk.

321. In addition to the sum now required by law for a license to sell such liquors in quantities less than a quart, the clerk shall demand and receive before issuing such license from the person applying for the same the sum of fifty dollars, and also fifty cents as a fee to the clerk, in addition to that now allowed by law. If any person who shall take out an ordinary license or any other license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer shall knowingly sell, barter or give any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person who is a minor or under the age of twenty-one years, or shall, having such license, knowingly allow upon the premises occupied by him any such person who is a minor or under the age of twenty-one years, to drink any such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, together with the costs of prosecution, and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to jail until such fine and costs are paid, or for forty days, whichever shall first occur; and for any second offence it shall be the duty of the court before whom such person shall be convicted to impose a similar fine, and the court shall have