

discretion as to the suppression of license. The word "knowingly," as used in this article, shall be construed to mean such knowledge as a reasonable man would have under ordinary circumstances from the appearance of the person requesting to be served with such liquors.

325. Any person under the age of twenty-one years who shall enter a saloon or other place where intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer are sold and shall ask, demand or offer to purchase of the proprietor or owner thereof, or his agent, any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, kept for sale therein, or who shall knowingly and wilfully make any misrepresentation or false statement as to his age, and by reason of such misrepresentation or false statement shall obtain any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer from any other person or persons licensed to sell such spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer under the laws of this State, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars, or imprisoned in jail for not more than thirty days, or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court; provided, that the testimony given by any minor or person under twenty-one years of age, in the prosecution of any person for selling liquors to minors under the laws of this State, shall not be used against such minor in the prosecution under this Act, and if any person not a minor shall obtain for and furnish any minor any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, from a licensed dealer, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or be confined in jail not more than sixty days.

Guilty of misdemeanor.

325½. Any person or persons holding a license issued under the provisions of this article, may assign the unexpired term thereof to another; provided, that said assignee shall comply with all the requirements and provisions of this article, in the same manner as is hereby required of an original applicant for a license under this article, and upon such transfer, the license so transferred shall have the consent of the clerk of the Circuit Court, endorsed on said license, and such assignee shall in every respect be subject to all the requirements, provisions and penalties of this article, and also of all privileges and benefits hereby conferred.

May assign the unexpired term to another.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any and all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal.