

and until he shall have fully settled up all business connected with his former term.

Oath taken.

107. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the treasurer shall take an oath, in due form of law, before the clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's county, to perform the duties of his office. He shall also execute a good bond, secured by a fidelity or security company incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland, which shall have deposited with the State Treasurer, not less than one hundred thousand dollars, as provided in the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1892, chapter 109, to the State of Maryland, in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer, and further conditioned that he shall well and truly account for and be liable for any and all money coming into his possession as treasurer, which bond shall be approved by the judges of the Circuit Court for Prince George's county, or a majority of them, and thereafter be recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, and upon default of the treasurer-elect to execute such a bond within thirty days after his election, and the same has been declared by the proper officers, the Governor of the State shall appoint another in his place, and so on until a treasurer shall have duly qualified.

Duty of Governor in case of death, etc.

108. In case of the death or resignation of the treasurer during his term of office, the Governor of the State shall, within twenty days thereafter, appoint a treasurer for the unexpired term thus created, who shall take the oath, give the bond and perform all the duties of said office prescribed by law, but such successor shall not take charge of or collect any of the taxes that were in the hands of the late treasurer and uncollected. The bond of the former treasurer shall remain responsible for said taxes, and they shall be collected and accounted for under the laws governing such a case.

Duty of treasurer.

109. The treasurer shall keep and pay over, according to law or upon the order of the County Commissioners, the proceeds of all county taxes levied in said county and collected by him; and shall also keep and pay over to the Treasurer of the State, according to law, all the State taxes levied in said county and collected by him. He shall keep a full and accurate account of all matters relating to the duties of his office, including assessments received, money collected and paid out, and vouchers taken therefor; and when required, give to the County Commissioners a true statement thereof.
