

memorandum is hereby required to be taken by the treasurer ; and to enter such redemption upon his books and over his signature, upon the report of sale dealing with the property redeemed. The treasurer shall, also, deposit the redemption money in some national bank in the name of the County Commissioners of Prince George's county, which shall be designated as "Tax Sale Redemption Fund," be kept separate from the other funds of the county, and be only payable to the persons entitled to the same. A book shall be kept by the treasurer entitled "Tax Sale Redemption Fund," which shall show the receipts and deposits of said fund and payment thereof to those entitled to the same.

116 c. Any surplus of purchase money over and above taxes, interest, penalties and costs of sale, received by the treasurer, shall be deposited in some national bank, in the name of the County Commissioners of Prince George's county, be designated as "Tax Sale Surplus Fund," be kept separate from the other funds of the county, and be only payable to the persons entitled to the same. A book shall be kept by the treasurer, entitled "Tax Sale Surplus Fund," which shall show the receipts and deposits of said fund, and payment thereof to those entitled to the same.
