

under this Act sell, furnish or give any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person whose parents, guardians, husband or wife, or as to whom the constable of the district in which he lives shall have given notice to such licensee in writing, verified by affidavit, that such person is of intemperate habits, and requesting such licensee not to sell to him or her. And no person shall knowingly procure or give to an habitual drunkard any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer. The word "knowingly," as used in this Act, shall be construed to mean such knowledge as a reasonable man would have, under ordinary circumstances, from the appearance of the minor or individual.

Fine
imposed.

175 L. Any person having a license under the provisions of this Act, who shall hereafter be convicted of violating any of the provisions of this Act, or of the conditions of his license, shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, for the first offense, and in default of the payment of the fine and costs so imposed, the bond herein provided for shall be put to suit for the recovery thereof; and upon a second conviction for the violation of any of the provisions of this Act or of the conditions of his license, he shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and his licensed shall be revoked; and in default of the payment of any fine and costs so imposed, the bond herein provided for shall be put in suit for the recovery thereof; and it shall not be necessary in an indictment for said second offence to allege a former conviction under the provisions of this Act, but such former conviction may be proven in the trial for said second offence, without such allegation. Any person who shall knowingly procure for or give to an habitual drunkard any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, in violation of the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. The license of any person who permits minors to frequent or loiter about his place, or disreputable or disorderly persons to make it a customary place of visitation