Election of directors.

6. And be it further enacted, That the directors shall be elected annually by the stockholders on the second Wednesday in January, and they shall elect from their number, at the first meeting of the board after their election, and after all subsequent elections, a president and one or more vice-presidents, and shall also have power to elect a secretary and treasurer, and to appoint and employ such other officers and agents as the business of said corporation, from time to time, requires; all elections shall be by ballot, and at such elections, and at all meetings of stockholders, every stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock held by him, but no person shall be eligible as director who is not a stockholder to the amount of five shares of stock; provided, however, that, this amendment shall not affect the annual election of the directors by the stockholders on the second Monday in April, 1898, but the said election shall be held as heretofore, and the directors so elected shall serve only until the second Wednesday in January, 1899, and the officers elected by the said directors shall likewise only hold their offices until the second Wednesday in January, 1899, or until their successors shall be duly elected.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1898.

CHAPTER. 237.

AN ACT to provide for the continuance and completion of the indexing of the Records of the Prerogative Court of the Province of Maryland.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By chapter four hundred and forty-one of the Acts of 1894, and chapter thirty-four of the Acts of 1896, provision was made for the commencement and continuance of the work of indexing the forty-seven volumes of the proceedings of the Prerogative Court of the Province of Maryland, seventy-four volumes of the administration accounts, and one hundred and twenty-six volumes of the inventories and seven volumes of the distribution or balance books, all of which have been and now are in the office of the Register of Wills of
