

Council of Rockville shall have published in the newspapers of said town a full and detailed statement of all expenditures made and liabilities incurred by the Mayor and Council of Rockville, nor until this Act shall have been approved by a majority of the legally qualified voters of said town who are taxpayers, (whose names appear on the assessment or tax list of said town,) at the next general election of said town, or at a special election to be called and held by the Mayor and Council of Rockville. And said Mayor and Council of Rockville shall cause to be printed for such election, ballots or tickets containing these words: For the issuance of bonds for $10,500; against the issuance of bonds for $10,000. And if a majority of the ballots cast are for the issuance of said bonds, it shall be considered as an approval of this Act, and the bonds shall issue, but if against the issuance of said bonds then said bonds shall not be issued.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the proceeds of sale of the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, shall be applied to the payment of certain certificates of indebtedness issued by the Mayor and Council of Rockville, under the provisions of its charter, aggregating the sum of forty-five hundred dollars; and also to the payment of an indebtedness incurred by the Mayor and Council of Rockville, in constructing and acquiring a plant for the generation of electric lights to be used for lighting said town, amounting to the sum of six thousand dollars, and to no other use or purpose whatever. Proceeds of sale.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said Mayor and Council of Rockville shall have full power and authority and are hereby required to levy all necessary taxes upon the property within the taxable limits of said corporation for the payment of the interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and for the payment of the principal thereof at the maturity thereof, and shall create a sinking fund for that purpose, and levy the necessary taxes therefor, to the amount of at least three hundred dollars each year. Levy taxes.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 7, 1898.
