

same shall become due, and said County Commissioners shall cause to be levied upon and collect from the taxable property of the fourth and seventh election districts of said county as a special improvement road tax for said turnpike road, an additional tax annually, which shall be sufficient to pay two-fifths of the said bonds as the same shall severally mature and the interest thereon as the same shall become due, which said three-fifths and two-fifths tax shall be collected in like manner as other taxes levied in said county are collected, and when collected shall be applied to the payment of said bonds as they mature, and the interest thereon semi-annually.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That all coupons of said bonds for any current year shall be received in payment of county taxes in Montgomery county, for such current years or any previous year, when such coupons shall have matured; and when any of said bonds shall have been paid, as herein provided, the said County Commissioners shall immediately destroy the same and all immature coupons thereto attached, and shall also destroy said coupons as they are severally paid, and should the said County Commissioners, or any person having the custody of said bonds or coupons as they have been redeemed, re-issue the same, the person or persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and shall be punished in the same manner as is provided for the punishment of that crime by Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws, and shall also be liable civilly in an amount equal to the amount of said bonds or coupons so re-issued, and the costs of suit.

Received in payment of taxes.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Montgomery county be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to employ all servants and agents, and to make all contracts and to do all other acts necessary to carry the provisions of this Act into effect.

Authority
given.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That no passenger or other railway, railroad or tramway of any description whatsoever, shall be constructed over and along the bed of said road, whether upon the graded or ungraded parts thereof, without the consent of the said County Commissioners first had and obtained in writing and recorded among the proceedings of said County Commissioners; and said County Commissioners shall not grant the privilege of constructing any passenger or other railway, railroad or tramway over and along said road bed without receiving just compensation therefor, and in no case less than two hundred and fifty dollars per mile where said road shall not have been graded by the County Commissioners, and not less

Consent to be given.