

Vacancy. other court having jurisdiction in the premises, his office shall be deemed to be vacant, and said Board of Aldermen shall thereupon appoint some other person having the qualifications hereibefore prescribed for the office of City Register to fill out the unexpired term of the person so convicted. The term of office of the person so elected City Register shall begin on the first Monday of May next after his election, and shall continue until his successor in office is duly elected and qualified.

City constables. 181. The Mayor shall appoint such number of city constables as may from time to time be provided for by ordinance, who within the police limits of the said city, shall have all the powers possessed by constables in this State, except as to the collection of debts; and said city constables shall receive a salary to be fixed by ordinance, annually, and shall not be entitled to receive any fees, costs or other emoluments. The Mayor shall have the power and authority to summarily remove from office any city constable who may be found inefficient, incompetent or incapable, or who may be guilty of any misconduct or malfeasance in office, or who is negligent in the performance of his official duties.

Mayor to appoint officers. 182. All officers of the corporation not herein named, who shall be deemed necessary to execute the laws and ordinances of the corporation, whose offices are now or may hereafter be provided for by law, or by ordinance, order or resolution of the Board of Aldermen, shall be appointed by the Mayor, and they, and all officers herein named, shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed from time to time by the ordinances of the corporation. The Mayor shall have the same power of removal as to all such officers as that set forth as to city constables in the preceding section.

Salary of mayor. 185. The Mayor shall receive in lieu of fees an annual salary of six hundred dollars, payable in equal quarterly installments, which sum shall be his total compensation. He shall annually, immediately before the making out of the tax levy for each year, and as much oftener as he shall deem necessary, examine into and audit the accounts of the City Register, and shall report the results of his examinations in writing to the Board of Aldermen, who shall preserve such reports and record the same among the minutes of their proceedings. The term of office of the person elected Mayor shall begin on the first Monday of May next after his election, and shall continue until his successor in office is duly elected and qualified.

245. The Mayor shall have power at such time as he may think proper to appoint commissioners or assessors to revise,