

or omissions; shall, if possible, keep such records in a fire-proof safe; shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, transmit to the State Registrar of vital statistics, in the envelopes furnished for that purpose, the originals of all certificates, permits and records remaining in his possession on the last day of the month next preceding; provided, that the State Registrar may in the event of unusual sickness or mortality, or for the purpose of legal or legislative inquiry, require of any local registrar, returns at shorter intervals.

Record to be made.

6 e. In all cases of death where no physician was in attendance, the coroner, undertaker or other person in charge of the interment of such dead body, shall make record, as far as possible, of the facts required in a certificate of death, and shall forward the same to the nearest registrar or sub-registrar, within five days. In all cases of death from small-pox, yellow fever, diphtheria, scarlet fever or other contagious or infectious disease dangerous to public health, the certificates of death shall be forwarded immediately, and interment shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the State Board of Health.

Application for permit to disinter

6 f. Application for a permit to disinter a human body shall be made by the presentation to the local registrar of a certificate of death properly made and containing the facts required by law for record of a death. Upon receipt of such certificate the registrar shall issue a permit for the disinterment. No disinterment of the body of any deceased person during the months of July and August shall be issued, except when required for the purpose of a legal investigation; nor shall any such permit be issued in cases where death was caused by infectious or contagious disease except by permission and under the direction of the local board of health.

Certificate to be furnished.

6 g. Every midwife who shall have professional charge of the mother at the birth of any child where no physician is in attendance, shall within the four days next succeeding the birth, furnish the registrar or sub-registrar of the town or district wherein such birth shall have taken place, a certificate stating, from the best information which can be obtained, the name, if such a child has a name, the place and date of birth, its sex, the name of the father and the maiden name of the mother, the ages, color, residence and nationality of the parents, the occupation of the father, number of the child and the name and address of the attendant.

6 h. Parents shall give notice to the registrar of their city, town or county of the birth or deaths of their children; every
