

employ as many laborers at one dollar and fifty cents per day as may be necessary for the proper and economical management of the respective warehouses, and it shall be the duty of the chief inspector to order the discharge of any or all of said additional laborers in part or whole, whenever the regular force can do the work.

Report to be made.

12. At the end of each day the tobacco note clerk in each of said warehouses, shall make a detailed report of the operation of such respective warehouses to the chief clerk, who shall enter a full record thereof in a book kept by him for that purpose; the chief clerk shall collect all monies due said warehouses, and in a set of books to be provided for that purpose, keep the accounts of each warehouse separately, and consolidate the operations of all of said warehouses in one general ledger, so as to show the operations thereof individually and collectively. The chief inspector shall select an office in one of the warehouses now used by the State, to be most agreeable to him, with a due regard to the most central location for the purpose of business.

Salaries.

13. The salaries and wages of the chief inspector, deputies, assistant clerks and all employes and appointees of said warehouses shall be from the receipts thereof and from no other source.

Duties of chief inspector.

14. The chief inspector shall have full charge of all the receipts and disbursements of the said warehouses, shall make all contracts for nails or other articles required for the use of said warehouses except for repairs, and shall make a report quarterly, viz: On the first of January, April, July and October in each year, showing the receipts and disbursements of each of said warehouses with the vouchers therefor, giving in detail the respective amounts received from outage, storage, cooperage, reconditioning, stays and sale of scraps, and also showing the respective amounts paid for labor, nails, lumber, hoops, incidentals, wages and salaries, and showing the cash balance for each quarter, and at the quarter ending April first in each year, pay over to the Comptroller to whom the aforesaid reports are required to be made, all moneys in hand after paying all expenses and salaries of said warehouses, and said chief inspector shall have power to have tobacco delivered at such warehouses, as in his judgment may seem best for the public interests.

Case of sickness.

15. In case of absence of the inspector by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause, then during his absence his duties shall devolve upon the chief clerk or other such clerk or em-