

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said corporation shall be and is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and keep on deposit all such valuables as gold, silver or paper money, bullion, precious metals, jewels, plate, certificates of stock or evidences of indebtedness, deeds or muniments of title or other valuable papers of any kind, or any other article or thing whatsoever, which may be left or deposited for safe-keeping with said corporation, and it may and shall be lawful for any of the courts of this State, into which monies, stocks, bonds or other property may be paid or deposited by agreement of parties, order, judgment or decree of said court, to order and direct the same to be deposited with said corporation, and it shall be entitled to charge such commission or compensation therefor as may be agreed upon; and for the complete preservation and safe keeping thereof, may construct, erect, purchase or lease such fire and burglar-proof buildings, vaults, iron and composition safes, or other building or means which may be or become necessary, and, generally, to transact and perform all the business relating to such deposit and safe-keeping or preservation of all such articles as valuables as may be deposited with it.

Receive and keep on deposit
valuables.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That when any court shall appoint the said corporation a receiver, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian or committee, or shall order the deposit of money or other valuable of any kind with said corporation, the capital stock, as paid in, shall be taken and considered as the security required by law for the faithful performance of its duties; provided, the said court shall not deem it necessary to require further security, and shall be absolutely liable in case of any default whatever; the court, if it deems necessary, may, from time to time, appoint suitable persons to investigate the affairs and management of said corporation, who shall report to such court the manner in which such investments are made, and the security afforded to those by and for whom its engagements are held, and the expenses of such investigation shall be defrayed by said corporation; or the court may, if it deem necessary, examine the officers of said corporation, under oath or affirmation, in regard to the management of its affairs.

Capital stock
taken as security.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That in case of the dissolution of said corporation, the debts due from the corporation as receiver, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian or committee or depository of money, under order of

Preference
given.