

her, their or its real estate by due process of law, or the bailiff or collector may sell such real estate for the payment of taxes by complying with the same requirements as the treasurer of Garrett county.

Collection
and payment of taxes.

183. The bailiff or collector shall collect and pay over to the town treasurer all taxes collected of the levy placed in his hands for collection monthly, dating from the date of said levy, and shall give bond conditioned accordingly, and on all taxes remaining unpaid after the first day of January next following the said levy he shall charge and collect interest from the said first day of January, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, to be accounted for with the tax, and in all suits by the said Mayor and Council upon the bond of said bailiff or collector for any neglect of duty, or for his default in not collecting any tax placed in his hands according to law, or for breach of his duty in not paying over money collected by him; proof of the delivery of the levy list shall be sufficient prima facie evidence to entitle said Mayor and Council to receive judgment in such suits unless the said bailiff or collector shall show that he has discharged his duty in such case according to law. It shall be the duty of said bailiff or collector to assess from time to time, subject to an appeal to said Mayor and Town Council, any property in said town, liable to taxation, and which shall come to his knowledge as having been omitted from the assessment books of said town, and all property coming into said town from time to time, and becoming liable to taxation; and provided further that this Act shall not affect the right of any present or past collector or bailiff from collecting any past due taxes placed in his hands under the then existing law.

Maintaining
town scales,
etc.

184. The Town Council shall provide for maintaining town scales, and a lockup or town prison, where all offenders against the ordinances of the town may be imprisoned by the tribunal having jurisdiction to hear such offenses.

Not to hold
other offices.

185. No members of the Town Council shall during his term of office hold or be interested in any other office under the corporation, nor be a party directly or indirectly to or interested in any contract in which the corporation is interested.

Quorum.

186. A majority of all the members elected to the Town Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Present at all meetings.

187. It shall be the duty of the town clerk to be present at all the meetings of the Mayor and Council; he shall keep a correct record of their proceedings and an account of all their financial transactions; he shall enter all ordinances passed by
