

also a tax not to exceed two dollars upon any one bitch within the said corporation.

Condemn land.

190. Whenever it shall, in the judgment of the Town Council, become necessary to condemn land for the purpose of opening or widening a street or alley, the corporation or any person aggrieved by the condemnation proceedings, may appeal to the Circuit Court under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinances.

Removal
from office.

191. A member of the Town Council may be removed from office for the same cause and in the same manner that the Mayor may be removed, as provided by this Act.

Keep sidewalks in good repair.

192. It shall be the duty of the owners or possessors of property abutting on any street, or whenever in the discretion of the Mayor and Town Council they deem it necessary for the safety and use of the public to make and keep the sidewalk upon which the said property so abuts in good repair at his own cost and expense, and such owner shall be responsible for any damages which may be occasioned by his negligence in repairing such sidewalk or failure to keep them in good and proper repair. If the owner or possessor shall fail to make or repair any sidewalk after due notice, according to the ordinances of the town, the corporation shall repair the same and charge the same to the owner, possessor or other person responsible for such repairs, and may proceed to collect the same according to law, and all sidewalks shall be constructed or repaired in such manner as may be required by ordinances, but the Mayor and Town Council of Oakland shall not be responsible for any damage which may be occasioned by reason of a failure on the part of lot owners to keep their sidewalks in proper repairs.

remove.

193. The Town Council shall have power to remove for cause any officer elected by it; also the power to remove the bailiff for any cause or neglect of duty and to fill any vacancy in office which it has the power to fill in the first place, and shall have the power to fill the vacancy of bailiff if the Mayor fails to fill the place as provided for in the first place.

Oath.

194. The town clerk, before entering upon his duties, shall take the oath herein prescribed for members of the Town Council, and shall execute such bond as may be prescribed by ordinance.
