

of the Town Council. He shall have the custody of all corporation funds and shall receive, disburse and report the same in such manner as may be prescribed by ordinance.

195 b. The tax collector, before entering upon his duties, shall execute a bond as required by the ordinance of the town, and shall take the oath prescribed for the members of the council. He shall collect all taxes and other claims which may be due the corporation and shall pay over and account for the same at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by this Act or the ordinances made in pursuance thereof. He shall assess all the improvements or additions to property in the town which may be made after a general assessment, and an appeal shall be from his valuation in the Town Council.

Execute a bond.

195 c. The police magistrate shall be a justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Garrett county, residing within the town of Oakland. He shall have full authority, power and jurisdiction to hear, determine and pass sentence in all cases of the violation of the ordinances of said corporation, and may impose fines for such violation, or may imprison offenders, or may both fine and imprison offenders against said ordinance, and in default of the payment of any fine imposed by him he shall commit the offender to the lockup or county jail until the same be paid, as may be provided by the ordinances of the town; provided, that no ordinance shall be passed providing for a fine of not less than one or more than twenty-five dollars, nor for a term of imprisonment for more than thirty days.

Duty of police magistrates

195 d. The attorney for the corporation shall render such legal services as may be required of him, from time to time, by the Mayor and Town Council, and shall receive such compensation as the Town Council may prescribe by ordinance.

Duty of attorney.

195 e. The bailiff shall qualify in such manner as the Town Council shall require. He shall perform all the public duties of the town, and for this purpose he is clothed with all the powers of a constable under the general law. He shall promptly bring all violators of the ordinances of the town to trial before the police magistrate. He shall enforce the ordinances of the town, and shall be subject to the orders of the Mayor and Council, provided such orders are not contrary to the ordinances of the town. He shall receive the same fees as a constable in Garrett county for making arrests or serving any process for violation of the ordinances of the town or in the discharge of his duties as bailiff.

Power of bailiff.