

Commissioners of Cambridge may direct, and shall at least ten days prior to said election, appoint three judges thereof, who shall in time prior to or on the day of election, appoint two clerks of election, and hold the election as herein provided, the said judges and clerks of election first qualifying themselves to act as such, by taking before a justice of the peace the oaths prescribed by sections 48 and 49 of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Elections," as the same were codified before the passage of chapter 538 of the Acts of 1890, and any subsequent amendments to said Article 33, and the said election shall be held under the provisions of law, as they existed prior to the enactment of the Australian ballot law by said chapter 538 of the Acts of 1890, and the subsequent Acts amending said Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Elections."

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the ballots cast at said election shall have written or printed upon, the words "For License," and "Against License," and that the ballots so cast, shall be carefully counted by the said judges of election, and that said judges shall make a return of such vote to the Commissioners of Cambridge; and if it appears that a majority of the ballots so cast shall contain the words "For License," written or printed upon them, then the said Commissioners shall forthwith make proclamation of the result of the election, by advertisement thereof at least once in the newspapers as aforesaid, and on and after the second day of July next, it shall be lawful for all persons to sell spirituous and fermented liquors within the limits of said town, under the restrictions and provisions herein contained, and sections 209 to 213, inclusive, of Article ten of the Public Local Laws of Dorchester, as amended by chapter — of the Acts of 1896, shall in that event be and are hereby repealed, but if the majority of the votes cast are "Against License," the law now in force shall continue and be in full force and effect.

How ballots to be printed

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in case the majority of votes cast at said election shall be "For License," that then the following new sections be and the same are hereby added to Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Liquors and Intoxicating Drinks," to follow section 213, and to be designated as sections 213 A, 213 B, 213 C, 213 D, 213 E and 213 G, and to read as follows:

New section added.

213 A. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in the said town of Cam-

Unlawful to sell liquors.