

months nor more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each and every offense, and the person in possession of the premises, house or place at the time the violation occurred, shall be deemed prima facie guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be subject to the same fines and penalties as the actual violator.

Guilty of misdemeanor.

213 E. And be it enacted, That any person or persons or members of any body corporate that shall have obtained a license to sell liquors under the provisions of this Act and shall violate any of the promises or provisions of section 213 A of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof either before a justice of the peace of the county aforesaid or in the circuit court therefor, upon presentment and indictment, or upon appeal from the decision and sentence of such justice, and shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars and costs, or imprisonment in the county jail of said county for not more than sixty days, or with fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court or justice trying the case for each and every offense, and shall in addition thereto have his, their or its license suppressed by sentence of said court or justice, and after conviction and suppression of license the offender or offenders shall not again sell or offer to sell in said town any such liquors aforesaid, under the penalties provided in the last preceding section for the period of five years from the date of conviction, unless the said court of justice shall in passing sentence name a shorter period of time, which they are hereby authorized to do, but which shall in no case be less than one year, and in which event the offender shall not sell in said town as last aforesaid and under the penalties last aforesaid, for the period of time so fixed by said court or justice, and in all cases of conviction the offender or offenders shall by the sentence of the court or justice stand committed until the fine and costs imposed are paid, or until and unless in any case of any conviction and appeal taken therefrom, a good and sufficient recognizance bond is furnished by the party convicted to prosecute his appeal with effect in the names in such case already made and provided by law; and in all cases where such fines and costs shall have been imposed, not paid within thirty days, the bond of the party or parties convicted filed with the clerk as preliminary to the obtaining a license to sell liquors shall be liable for the payment of the same, the said fines and costs to be collected by the State's attorney of said county by a suit in the name of the State of Maryland for the use of the County Commissioners