CHAPTER 377.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money for the improvement of the State Library, and to continue the card catalogue system therein.

Preamble. WHEREAS, During the incumbency of the present State Librarian, the "card catalogue system" has been adopted, which has done away with the old system of printed catalogues which had constantly to be renewed from time to time at heavy expense for printing and binding; and,

Preamble. WHEREAS, Under the card system all additions to the library are shown by the simple addition of a card for each book added, being placed on the card cabinet, thus keeping a continuous and complete catalogue of the books in said library; and
