Tharp, surveyor, the 26th day of January, 1880, as recorded in Liber J. F. T. No. 89, folio 285, one of the land record books of Talbot county.

45. All elections shall be by ballot, and every male citizen of the age of twenty-one years or upwards who is a citizen of the United States and who has been a bona fide resident of the town for one year next preceding the election, and whose name shall appear upon the list of registered voters of the town, as hereinafter provided, shall be entitled to vote at all elections hereafter to be held, but no person who has been convicted of larceny or other infamous crime, unless pardoned by the Governor, shall ever be entitled to vote at any town election, and no person under guardianship as a lunatic or as a person non compos mentis shall be entitled to vote. The qualified voters shall, on the first Monday in May in the year 1908, and every two years thereafter, at the engine house in said town, or such other place or places as the Mayor and Council shall designate, elect a Mayor to serve for two years, and until the qualification of his successor; and the said qualified voters shall, on the first Monday in May in the year 1908, at the same time and place, elect five members of the Council to serve without pay, for two years, and until the qualification of their successors, one of whom shall be chosen at large and shall be president of the Council, the other four to be elected, one from each of the four wards.

51. After the time has expired for presenting nominations, the town clerk shall prepare the official ballot, and shall cause to be printed thereon in a single vertical column, without device of any kind, the names of the nominees for the respective offices to be filled, and he shall cause the names of the candidates for the same office to be grouped together. The official ballot shall be of opaque, plain white paper, not less than four and not more than five inches in width and of sufficient length to admit the names of all the nominees, and the name of any person not legally nominated shall not be counted, and the ballot shall be printed as near as may be like the following sample, date and names to be changed.
