

CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT to prevent the killing or trapping the foxes in Talbot county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person to kill or injure any fox in Talbot county while such fox is pursued by dogs.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of said county shall pay a fine of ten dollars, one-half which shall go to the informer and the other half into the school fund of said county, and in default of the payment of said fine, together with the cost of the prosecution, shall be confined in the county jail for a term of not less than five or more than twenty days.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 27, 1908.

CHAPTER 464.

AN ACT to repeal chapter 22 of the Acts of 1908 of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "An Act to prevent the killing or trapping the foxes in Talbot county," and to reenact the same with amendments, and an additional section so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That chapter 22 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the session of 1908, be repealed and reenacted with amendments, and an additional section so as to read as follows:

1. That it shall not be lawful to kill or injure any fox in Talbot county when such fox is pursued by dogs.

2. That it shall not be lawful to sell or expose for sale any fox or any fox hide in Talbot county, and it shall not be lawful to ship by freight, express or otherwise any fox or any fox hide from any place in Talbot county to any place outside of Talbot county.

3. That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in Talbot
