

hunt, catch or kill any game of any kind in Washington county without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court of said county a license permitting the person therein named to shoot, hunt, catch or kill game in said county for the period of one year from the date of the issue thereof. And such license shall not be transferable; and in order to guard against such transfer, the clerk, at the time of issuing the same, shall write a description of the party obtaining said license on the back thereof, as a means of identification of such licensee; a license fee of ten dollars shall be charged for such license, besides fifty cents to said clerk for issuing the same. The whole amount of license money so received shall by said clerk be paid to the Board of County School Commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools therein. The licensees under this section shall always when hunting carry their license with them, and shall present them to any of the officers designated in section 34 of this article or any other officers with full power and authority to make arrests in said county, when demanded by them, and upon failure to produce such license the said officer shall immediately arrest such party and take him before the nearest justice of the peace for trial; provided, that any land owner or lessee may extend the privilege in writing, of killing or catching birds and game upon his land to whomsoever he pleases during such parts of the year as the killing or catching of said birds and game is lawful under this article.

31. It shall not be lawful to shoot, kill or in any way entrap or destroy any wild birds or any wild fowl of any description, except hawks, crows, owls, English sparrows, wild geese, wild ducks, wild pigeons, jack snipes, sand snipe, plover, cedar birds and rails; or to shoot, kill, entrap, wound or destroy any rabbit, squirrel, deer or fawn; provided, however, that it shall be lawful to shoot woodcock, quail, partridges and rabbits during the month of November, squirrels from the first day of September to the first day of the following January, inclusive; deer, wild turkey, and pheasants from the first day of November to the first day of the following January, inclusive; doves from the fifteenth day of August to the fifteenth day of September, inclusive, in each year; but it shall not be lawful to use ferrets to hunt or kill rabbits at any time.

32. It shall not be lawful to sell, or attempt to sell, at any season of the year, any pheasant, partridges, wild turkey, deer, squirrel, woodcock or rabbit, nor shall it be lawful for any one to ship, for the purpose of selling elsewhere, any pheasant, partridge, wild turkey, deer, squirrel, woodcock or rabbit, in said county.
