

33. The possession by any person within the said county of any woodcock, pheasant, partridge, wild turkey, deer, squirrel or rabbit, out of season, as provided by section 31 of this article, or the possession by any express or transportation company, of any such birds or game out of season, shall be conclusive evidence to convict under said section.

34. Any person or persons or corporations offending against any of the provisions of sections 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33 of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of said county, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars for each offense, and upon failure to pay the same shall be committed to the county jail for a period of thirty days; one-half of said fine to go to the informer, and the other half to the school fund of the county; provided, that the party charged shall be entitled to demand a jury trial before the case is heard by the justice of the peace, and upon such demand shall be recognized to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court for said county; and provided further, that for the purpose of the strict enforcement of the aforesaid provisions in said sections 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33 of this article, every owner, tenant and other persons in possession of lands or premises in said county whereon such unlawful hunting shall be done, and all constables, game wardens, sheriffs and deputy sheriffs of said county shall have full power to apprehend and search any person or persons for game or birds that may be found unlawfully or out of season, on or about any such person or persons, and arrest any such person or persons so violating any of the provisions of the aforesaid sections and any person or persons who shall resist arrest or search as aforesaid by such owner, tenant or other person in possession or occupancy of the land or premises whereon he or they may be apprehended or any other of the aforesaid officers shall be liable to be tried and punished as at common law for resistance to an officer in the discharge of his official duties.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 107.

AN ACT to add an additional section to chapter 745 of the Public Local Laws, entitled "Washington County," sub-title "County Commissioners," the same to be known as section 6A, so as to read as follows:
