

(pica) type, an appropriate direction or instruction to the voter, informing him of the number of persons for whom he may lawfully vote for the particular office mentioned immediately above each such direction, thus: "Vote for one," or "vote for two," or "vote for six," as the case may be. To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, and properly separated from said names, and immediately to the left of the square opposite the name of the candidate, and in line therewith, shall be added the designation of the party or principal which the candidate represents, as is duly contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination papers (said designation of the party, however, shall consist solely of the name of the party and nothing more). To the name of each candidate for State office or candidate for Congress shall be added the name of the county or city in which the candidate resides. Ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (x) in a square at the right of the name of each candidate, and at the right of each question, his choice of candidates and his answer to such question. If the candidate is named for the same office on two or more certificates of nomination, his name shall be printed on the ballot but once, and to the right of the name of said candidate shall be added the names of each of the parties or principals which the candidate represents. When the name of a political party is given in connection with the name of a candidate nominated as provided in Section 42 of this Article, it shall be stated on the ballot to the right of the name of the candidate; but if there shall have been any nomination for the same office by a convention or primary election claiming the same party name, duly certified as hereinbefore provided, the word "Independent" shall precede the party name, and if the candidate is nominated under the provisions of the said Section 42, to be printed to the right of the name of each candidate, except presidential electors. If the same party name shall be claimed on behalf of nominations made by more than one convention or primary election, and duly certified as aforesaid, the officers by whom the ballot is to be prepared, or a majority of them, shall determine which nominees are justly entitled to the party name, and the word "Independent" shall precede the party name of the other nominee. The names of candidates for the office of electors of president and vice-president of the United States shall be arranged in groups, as presented in the several certificates of nomination papers, and the several groups shall be arranged in such order of the surnames of the candidates for president as the several Boards of Supervisors shall prescribe in the city of Baltimore, and in the several counties, respectively. If candidates for
