

sell intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever within the limits of any political sub-division or district whatever in this county while the same is anti-saloon territory, and if any such license be granted or issued in violation hereof, the same shall be void; provided, that this shall not apply to sales made by a person under a provision of law requiring him to sell personal property.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That every retail liquor dealer, except druggists, trafficking, personally or by agent, in intoxicating liquor in any political sub-division which becomes anti-saloon territory by vote of the people thereof as herein provided, shall remove or cause to be removed all intoxicating liquors from such place, its appurtenances or dependencies, within ten days from the first of May next following such vote; failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be prima facie evidence that such liquor is kept for the purpose of being sold in violation of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That whoever shall, by himself or another, either as principal, clerk or servant, directly or indirectly, sell, barter or exchange any intoxicating liquor in any quantity whatever within the limits of any political sub-division or district in said county, while the same is anti-saloon territory, or keep or have in his possession any intoxicating liquors with intent to sell or otherwise dispose of same in violation of the provisions of this Act, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or be both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court. If any person shall be convicted of violating any provision of this section and shall subsequently violate any provision of this section, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), and imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days, and in like manner, if he shall subsequently violate any provision of this section, for such third and each subsequent violation, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than one year. The State's Attorney of Washington county and justices of the peace in and for said county having knowledge of any previous conviction of any person accused of violating the provisions of this section, in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments, shall allege such previous conviction therein; and it
