

law, who shall wilfully refuse or neglect or fail to discharge any duty imposed by this Act, and any one who signs a petition provided for in this Act, knowing he is not qualified to do so, or who files with the Supervisors of Elections any such petition or any sheet or other part thereof, knowing that it contains the signature of a person not qualified to sign the same, or who receives, requests or demands or gives, offers or promises any reward for signing or the refraining from signing of any such petition or who by treating or giving intoxicating liquor or anything else of the same or a different kind, or by threats to injure another in person or property, or by betting or other device, either directly or indirectly influences or attempts to influence anyone to sign or refrain from signing any such petition, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days or be both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court. If any person shall be convicted of violating any provision of this section, and shall subsequently violate any provisions of this section for such second and each subsequent violation he shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), and imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician to issue a prescription for intoxicating liquor, except in writing, or in any case unless the person for whom it is issued is actually sick or such liquor is required as a medicine; every prescription for intoxicating liquor shall contain the name and quantity of liquor prescribed, the name of the person for whom prescribed, the date on which the prescription is written and direction for use of the liquor so prescribed, and it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician who has been convicted of issuing verbal prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, or of issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquor knowing the same to be for use as a beverage, or of issuing prescriptions that do not in form comply with this Act, thereafter to issue any prescription for intoxicating liquor for any purpose for a period of two years from the date of such conviction. Every prescription issued in violation of the provisions hereof shall be held to be an unlawful selling, and on conviction therefor the person issuing same shall be punished accordingly.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to forbid or prevent the sale within anti-