

constitute a separate offense. The acceptance, receiving, carrying, transferring, handling, delivery or distribution of intoxicating liquor under false or fictitious names in an anti-saloon territory shall work a forfeiture of such liquor. It is further expressly provided, that no provision of this section is intended or shall be construed to violate or be in conflict with any provision of the Constitution and laws of the United States respecting interstate commerce, but this section and all parts of same are intended to prohibit the acceptance, receiving, carrying, transferring, handling, delivery or distribution, as herein provided, of intoxicating liquor to such extent only as the same is not expressly permitted under the Constitution and laws of the United States. If any provision of this section shall be held to be void or unconstitutional, it is hereby provided that all other portions of same which are not expressly held to be void or unconstitutional shall continue in full force and effect.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of this Act, which are hereby declared to be misdemeanors, may be either upon presentment or indictment, or by trial before a justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction, who shall have jurisdiction original and concurrent with the Circuit Court for Washington county; and the said justice shall have the power to issue all process, and to do all Acts which may be necessary to the exercise of his said jurisdiction, and may try and determine all cases whereof he may have jurisdiction, and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein in the same manner and to the same extent as the Circuit Court of Washington county could do in such cases, if such cases were tried before said court without the intervention of a jury; provided, however, that if any person, when brought before any justice having jurisdiction of the case, shall, before trial for the alleged offense, pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for said county, shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a jury trial on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of such justice to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the Circuit Court for Washington county, if it be in session, or at its next session, if it be not in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the clerk of said court; and the justice before whom the case is brought shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That in all prosecutions under this Act, by indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind of liquor sold, nor to describe the place where sold, nor to show the knowledge of the principal to con-
