

as there has been filed with the undersigned an affidavit, of which the following is a copy: (Here copy affidavit.) These are, therefore, to command you in the name of the State of Maryland, together with the necessary and proper assistance, to enter into (here describe the house or place described in the affidavit) of the said                    of                   , in the county aforesaid, and there diligently search for the said intoxicating liquor and means used for the sale of the same (here describe the articles as in the affidavit), and that you bring the same, or any part thereof found in such search forthwith before me, to be disposed of and dealt with according to law. Given under my hand this                    day of                    A. D.                   . Such liquor and means used for the sale of the same, shall be held subject to the order of the justice of the peace or court issuing the warrant to be used as evidence in the prosecution of any case for the violation of this Act. (C) If fluids be poured out or otherwise destroyed when the premises are searched, or about to be searched, said fluids shall be held prima facie to be intoxicating liquor and intended for sale in violation of this Act. (D) If upon final judgment of the justice of the peace or court the accused shall be found guilty, the intoxicating liquor seized from him shall, after the time for appeal has expired and if no appeal is taken, be ordered to be destroyed, and the other property shall be held as the property of the accused or owner. If the accused shall be found not guilty, the whole of the property seized shall be returned to the person from whom it was taken. (E) When any liquor shall have been seized by virtue of such warrant, the same shall not be discharged or returned to any person claiming the same by reason of any alleged insufficiency in the description in the complaint or the warrant of the liquor or place, but the claimant shall be entitled to a hearing when the case is tried, the justice of the peace or court shall order the same destroyed. (G) No warrant shall be issued to search a private residence occupied as such unless it or some part of it is used as a store or shop, hotel or boarding house, or unless such residence is a place of a public resort. (H) The person making affidavit for the warrant to search any place where intoxicating liquor is believed to be disposed of contrary to this Act, may personally or by agent, accompany the officer who serves the warrant and enter the place with such officer and give information and assistance to such officer in searching such place for such intoxicating liquor. (I) Liquor seized as hereinbefore provided, and the means used for the sale of the same, shall not be taken from the custody of the officer by a writ of replevin or other process while the proceedings herein provided are
