

for corporation cases, and therein record and make regular entries of the proceedings in all such cases, setting forth the fine or imprisonment imposed and the amount of costs, and he shall submit said docket to the inspection of any person who may request to see the same, and upon demand of any person interested, shall deliver a copy of any judgment rendered by him; he shall make quarterly reports to the Burgess and Commissioners of the fines collected by him, and duly account for and pay over the same.

SEC. 295C. From any judgment rendered by the Burgess, as the police justice, in the enforcement of any of the ordinances of the town, and appeal shall lie by the person aggrieved to the Circuit Court for Washington county; provided, the appeal is taken within three days after the rendering of the judgment; and provided the person aggrieved shall enter into good and sufficient bond for the faithful prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of all costs in the case the judgment be affirmed, but no appeal shall stay process or execution upon judgment, unless the bond be given as also provided.

SEC. 295D. The Burgess and Commissioners of Keedysville. for the enforcement of the ordinances of the town and the preservation of its peace and good order, are hereby authorized to appoint a bailiff, which bailiff shall have all the powers of a constable, and any person resisting a bailiff in the discharge of his duty shall be liable, upon conviction, to punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable, and any bailiff so appointed, who shall be guilty of official misconduct shall be proceeded against by presentment and indictment in the Circuit Court for Washington county, and if found guilty shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court. He shall receive for his services the same fees as are allowed by law to constables for similar services, or he shall receive a salary not exceeding twenty ($20.00) dollars per annum, in the discretion of the said Burgess and Commissioners.

SEC. 295E. The Burgess and Commissioners be and they are hereby vested with power and authority to grant the use of the streets and highways of the town to any railway company, the motive power whereof shall be either horse or electricity, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which such use shall be allowed.

SEC. 295F. The said Burgess and Commissioners are authorized and empowered to enter into contract with any person or persons, corporation or corporations, for the purpose of securing lighting by gas, electricity or otherwise, of the streets,