

Committees of the counties or as the governing bodies of the counties may determine upon for county primary elections. But in no event shall any primary election in the several counties be held later than the second Monday in September in each year. The State Central Committee or other governing body of the said political parties of the several counties shall give notice of the day for holding the primary election in their several counties by publication in some newspaper or newspapers published in the respective counties at least three weeks prior to the date of holding said primary election, which notice shall also state the place of holding the primary election and the hours during which the polls shall be open, and said polling places in each election precinct or district may be open from eight o'clock A. M. until six o'clock P. M. and not less than four hours on the day of the primary election. The Supervisors of Election of the several counties shall cause to be made, before the first day of July, 1908, a complete alphabetical list of the qualified voters of each election district or precinct of the several counties in the order of their registration and thereafter annually correct and post the same, which list shall be certified to by the Supervisors of Election, and shall cause to be made such additional certified list as may be required by any political party; provided, that where such a complete alphabetical list of the qualified voters of any county has already been prepared by the Board of Election Supervisors under existing law it may be corrected as necessary and posted by the Board of Election Supervisors and used under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 160B. The primary election of each of said political parties held under this Act shall be conducted by three judges and two clerks belonging to said respective parties in each election precinct or district of the respective counties, who shall be selected and appointed by the members of the Board of Supervisors of Election for each of said counties in the following manner, to wit: The members of the majority party upon said board shall appoint the said judges and clerks for the primary election of said majority party and the member of the minority party upon said board shall appoint the judges and clerks for the primary election of said minority party, and all of the members of said board, or the majority of them, shall appoint the judges and clerks for the primary election of any other party which may hold, or be required to hold, a primary election under the provisions of this Act; and one of the judges of the primary election of each of said parties shall be chosen as aforesaid from among the registration officers of each precinct or district for each of said parties and such judge so chosen shall be and be known as the return judge in said primary