

Act shall be taken and held and are declared to be common nuisances, and may be abated as such; and it shall be part of the judgment, upon the conviction of the keeper, that the place where liquor is found to have been sold contrary to this Act to be shut up and abated until the keeper shall give bond, with sufficient security, to be approved by the court, in the penal sum of one thousand (1000) dollars, payable to the State of Maryland, conditional that he will not sell intoxicating liquor contrary to law, and will pay all fines, costs and damages assessed against him for any violation thereof; and in case of a violation of the condition of such bond, suit may be brought and recovery had thereon for the use of the said county of Wicomico for any fine or fines that may be assessed against him under this Act.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of said county of Wicomico are hereby authorized to use any part of the fines collected for the violation of this Act for hiring detectives or secret service officers to secure the enforcement of the same. And when there are no funds available from fines collected for the violation of this Act such County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appropriate not more than two hundred dollars annually from the general revenue fund for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician to issue a prescription for intoxicating liquor except in writing, or in any case unless the person for whom it is issued is actually sick or such liquor actually is required as a medicine. Every prescription for intoxicating liquor shall contain the name, quantity of liquor prescribed, the name of the person for whom prescribed, the date on which the prescription is written, and direction for the use of the liquor so prescribed. And the said prescription shall contain the hour or exact time that it was written; and it shall be unlawful for any doctor or physician who has been convicted of issuing verbal prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, or of issuing prescriptions for intoxicating liquor, knowing the same to be for use as a beverage, or of issuing prescriptions that do not in form comply with this Act, thereafter to issue any prescription for intoxicating liquor for any purpose for a period of two years from the date of such conviction. Every prescription issued in violation of the provision hereof shall be held to be an unlawful selling and on conviction thereof the person issuing same shall be punished accordingly.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to forbid or prevent the sale within Wi-
