

he seeks to be nominated, and five days thereafter he shall pay to the State Central Committee or other governing body for such county the sum estimated by such committee or governing body as his fair proportionate part necessary to defray the expenses, provided that in the case of candidates for office said proportionate parts shall be estimated according to the number of candidates and the salaries of the various offices sought.

SEC. 160D. The ballots to be used at all primary elections held under this Act shall be caused to be prepared and printed by the State Central Committee or other governing body of the political parties of the respective counties with the names of candidates for any given office arranged alphabetically and according to surname, on opaque white paper of uniform size and in number not less than twice the number of registered voters, and shall be delivered by the said State Central Committee or other governing body to the return judge in each and every district or precinct of the respective counties at least three days before the day of the primary election and said committee or governing body shall print at the same time and distribute to any candidate ordering and paying the cost of the same any number of official ballots such candidates may desire. Said ballots shall contain the names of all delegates to any convention who shall have complied with the requirements of the foregoing section or the names of all candidates to be voted upon by direct vote who have complied with the foregoing requirements, as the case may be.

SEC. 160E. The primary election shall, as far as practicable, be held in the vicinity of the place of holding general elections in the several precincts, or districts of the respective counties of the State, and the Board of Election Supervisors of such county shall, before each primary election held under the provisions of this Act, provide each such return judge with one of the ballot boxes used at the general elections held in such county and with the aforesaid list of qualified voters for the respective precincts or district, and the State Central Committee or other governing bodies of the respective parties shall furnish or cause to be furnished and delivered to the return judge in each and every polling place of the respective counties, two poll books, two tally sheets and official ballots double in number the registered voters in such precinct or district and blank oaths of sufficient number for election officers, and plain opaque white gummed envelopes of uniform size in number 25 per cent. more than the estimated vote of such party in said precinct or district, as the case may be.