

gent poor, or for the general purposes of education, or for charitable purposes of any description, within said city of Salisbury; and the said corporation may buy any property it may deem necessary so to do and may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any property belonging to said corporation; provided, that it shall not buy, sell or dispose of any property of the value of five thousand dollars or over without first submitting the question of buying or selling and disposing of said property to the voters of said Salisbury at a general or special election of which at least twenty days' notice shall be given in the manner provided for holding general elections under this Act.

133. And be it enacted, That the government of said city shall be vested in a Mayor and five Councilmen to be selected as hereinafter provided, who shall be taxpayers and qualified voters of city for twelve months next preceding their election, and shall hold their offices for the term of two years, or until their successors are appointed or elected and qualified; provided, that three of the Councilmen elected at the first election held under this Act, which three shall be determined by lot at their first regular meeting, shall hold their office for the term of one year only.

134. And be it further enacted, That the male citizens of Salisbury, who have resided within the corporate limits of said city for twelve months next preceding the election, and who were qualified voters at the last preceding State or Congressional election, shall, on the first Tuesday in May, in the year 1908, and on the same day in every second year thereafter, elect by ballot one person to be Mayor, and on the first Tuesday of May in the year 1908, elect by ballot five persons to be Councilmen; and on the same day in every year thereafter, elect by ballot three persons to be Councilmen, to succeed those whose term of office is about to expire, two of whom shall be designated by lot at the first regular meeting of the Council, after their election and qualification to hold said office for two years, or until their successors are appointed or elected and qualified.

135. And be it enacted, That the Mayor shall, by publication in one or more newspapers published in said Salisbury at least ten days prior to holding any such election, give notice thereof, stating the object of said election, and the time and place and hours of holding the same. The Mayor shall, at least three days prior to the holding of any such election, appoint three citizens, qualified voters of said city, two of whom shall be from the majority party and one from the minority party at last State election, to act as the judges of the election, who before acting as such shall take oath in due form of law, before