

SEC. 160F. The candidates whose names appear upon the ballot at each primary election shall be entitled to have at each polling place not exceeding five watchers or challengers who shall be permitted to remain inside of such polling place from the opening of the polls until the count is concluded and the ballot box is sealed as provided for in this Act, no candidate or set of candidates shall be represented by more than one such challenger or watcher, and such challengers or watchers shall be recognized to the extent of five in number in each district under written authority from the candidates and shall be preferred according to the number of candidates so authorizing each such watcher or challenger until the maximum number shall have been reached.

SEC. 160G. The judges and clerks appointed as provided in the foregoing section, shall assemble in their respective precincts or districts of the several counties at the time and place designated by the State Central Committee or other governing body. They shall place the ballot box empty and locked and after permitting the challenger to fully examine the same when so placed in some conspicuous place where it may be easily seen by all the voters. No person shall be permitted to vote in any primary election to be held hereunder unless he shall be a registered voter in the election district in which he desires to vote and a member of the party at whose primary election he tenders his ballot and no person shall vote in the primary election of more than one party and not more than once in any primary and any registered voter who at the last preceding election voted for the electors for President or Vice-President of the United States, or Governor of the State of Maryland, or Comptroller or other State candidate, or the county candidates of the party at whose primary he tenders his ballot, or registered voter who shall attain the age of twenty-one years prior to the next election, or who having failed to vote at such last election, declares his intention to vote at the next succeeding election for the candidates named by the party at whose election he tenders his ballot shall be deemed a member of such party and entitled to vote at such primary election. The voter shall prepare his ballot by cancelling, using a black pencil, the names of those for whom he does not desire to vote by running or making a pencil line or lines through said names, and the names of those voted for are to be indicated by the absence of any cancellation of their names. Each ballot cast at any such primary election shall be handed by the voter to one of the judges of the election, folded so that the contents thereof can not be seen, and the judge of election so receiving such ballot shall place the same in a plain, white opaque envelope, to be