

inserted it will tear the paper so pasted over the keyhole; such paper shall be securely fastened with sealing wax or some other adhesive material, and said box shall not be re-opened until at a meeting of the governing body of the party holding said primary election hereinafter provided for. And upon sealing the ballot box as in Section 160H of this Act provided, the same, together with the primary election registration book or register, shall be delivered to and taken charge of by the return judge for each election district or precinct, who shall carefully guard and present the same to the meeting of the governing body to be held in the court house in each county at eleven o'clock A. M. on Tuesday next succeeding the date of such primary election, and after the returns shall have been canvassed and the results shall have been announced by the governing body of the party holding such primary election, as hereinafter directed, provided it shall be the duty of the return judge of each election district or precinct to deliver said ballot box and primary election register to the clerk of the Board of Election Supervisors of each county. The governing bodies of the respective parties holding the primary election held under the provisions of this Act, shall respectively assemble in the court house of each county at eleven o'clock A. M. on Tuesday next succeeding the day of such primary election of their respective parties, receive the ballot boxes from the return judges, sealed as provided in this Act, and shall proceed in public to canvass the vote cast at such primary election and publicly to announce the result thereof, if any protest against the result is announced by the judges of any election district or districts, is submitted to said governing body before the canvass of the votes of the entire county is completed, said governing body shall consider and determine any controversy that may arise in respect thereto and the decision of said body thereon shall be final. Any vacancy which may exist in respect to any office or position, after the returns have been canvassed and the final result announced, shall be filled as the rules and regulations of the governing bodies for the respective counties of the several parties may now or shall hereafter provide.

SEC. 160J. Each of said judges appointed under this Act shall have power to cause the arrest of any one violating any of the provisions hereof, and in the absence of any person authorized by law to make arrests said judge may designate some person for that purpose, and each of the judges shall be conservators of the peace in their respective primary election polls, at which they may act as such judges, and may in the manner herein provided cause the arrest of any person disturbing the peace, and cause the party so arrested to be committed for the