

action of the grand jury or a justice of the peace, as the case may be.

SEC. 160K. Any judge or clerk of the primary election, or any member of any such committee, or of the governing body, holding primary elections under this Act, on whom any duty is required in this Act to be performed, who shall be guilty of any wilful violation of any provision of this Act or of any neglect or corrupt practice in executing the same, not otherwise provided for herein, he or they shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 160L. And be it enacted, That each return judge who shall serve in connection with each primary election held under the provisions of this Act, shall be paid the sum of nine dollars for his services and each judge and each clerk three dollars therefor, to be paid by the County Commissioners of each county, and that the cost of the books and of making the list of voters provided for in this Act and keeping the same posted and corrected shall also be paid by the Board of County Commissioners for each county, provided that the cost of making such lists shall not exceed one hundred dollars, and the cost for posting and correcting the same in any one year thereafter shall not exceed the sum of twenty dollars, and all other costs incident to the holding of primary elections provided for in this Act shall be borne by the governing bodies of the parties in each county holding such primary elections.

SEC. 160M. The member of the State Central Committee or governing body of each party in any county, in calling any county convention of each party to order, shall announce the name and address of the delegates who were elected at the primary election as delegates to the said convention. All nominations made by said convention shall be certified to by the presiding officer and the secretary of the convention, as required by Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws. If the nominations for county officers are made by means of a direct vote at the primary election the certificates shall be signed and acknowledged by the State Central Committee or other governing body of the respective political parties of the several counties or a majority of them in the manner prescribed for nominations by convention as required by Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws.

SEC. 160N. Every candidate for the nomination for a State office, that is to say, for an office filled by the vote of all the