

SEC. 58. No person, corporation or company shall at any time trap, shoot or in any manner catch or kill, or have in possession any quail, woodcock or rabbit, after the same has been killed, for any purpose, except for consumption as food within Worcester county, nor trap, shoot or in any manner catch or kill or have in possession any of the above named game with the intention of sending or transporting or having the same sent or transported beyond the limits of said county; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the barter or sale of such game for home consumption by the person or persons who trap, shoot, catch or kill such game directly to the consumer within Worcester county, and it shall be unlawful for any other person or persons to expose such game for sale at any place whatsoever.

SEC. 59. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Worcester county, or before the Circuit Court of said county shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense and stand committed until fine and costs are paid.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act shall apply to cases pending, nor to violations of the laws which have heretofore occurred, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted as if the law hereby repealed was still in force.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

STENOGRAPHER FOR FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT—See Chapter 437, page 747.

CHAPTER 27.

AN ACT to enable the qualified voters of Worcester county to determine at a special election to be held Saturday, March 21, 1908, whether or not spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds, shall be sold in said county, and providing certain fines and penalties for the violation of the provisions of the same.