

papers published in said county, and it shall not be lawful for any license to sell spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds, to be issued in Worcester county after the last day of April, 1908.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if the returns of the election provided for in section one of this Act shall show that a majority of the votes cast at said election were against the sale of intoxicating liquors in Worcester county, that it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm, corporation or association of persons, under any pretense whatever, directly or indirectly, to barter, sell, give away or otherwise dispose of it at a place of business, or keep at any place whatsoever for the purpose of bartering or selling any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds within the limits of Worcester county; and it shall also be unlawful for any person or persons, firm, corporation or association of persons under any pretense whatever, within the limits of the county aforesaid, to take orders for any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds, or for any person or persons, firm, corporation or association of persons, to operate as distributing or collecting agents for any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons, firm, corporation or association of persons within said county shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, such person or persons, firm, corporation or association shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and said person or persons, members, trustees, directors or managers of said firm, corporation or association shall, upon conviction by the Circuit Court for Worcester county, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail or the Maryland House of Correction not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in any prosecution for violating the provisions of this Act it shall be sufficient to prove that the liquors disposed of did intoxicate or that they contained over three per cent. of alcohol; that the possession of a United States internal revenue stamp for the business of dealing in liquors by a person or persons, firm, corporation or association alleged to be violating the provisions of this Act, shall be prima facie evidence of guilt, and the testimony of two witnesses that they saw the name or names of the person or persons, firm, corporation or association in the records of the internal revenue office among the names of