

to provide for the enlargement and improvement from time to time by purchase, gift, devise, condemnation, or any other lawful way, of the said burying ground or cemetery; and

Whereas the said persons have applied to the General Assembly for an act of incorporation accordingly, and the said Trustees of the Grove Presbyterian Church, in Harford county, Maryland, a body corporate, are willing in the event that the General Assembly grant the act of incorporation as applied for, to convey to the corporation so incorporated all that lot or parcel of ground owned by the said Trustees of the Grove Presbyterian Church, in Harford county, Maryland, and which is at present used for the purposes of a cemetery or burying ground, saving and excepting only such portions thereof as are at present occupied by the church buildings, and it seems fit to the General Assembly to aid in the objects of said persons, and the object of said incorporation can not be obtained by general laws; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George K. McGaw, Jarrett T. Baldwin, John Archer Mitchell, John M. Michael, Morgan Mitchell, C. H. Johnson and Howard H. Mitchell, and their successors, as hereinafter provided, be and are hereby incorporated and made a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Trustees of the Grove Presbyterian Church, in Harford county, Maryland.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have succession by its corporate name forever with perpetual continuance of the powers herein granted; subject, however, and only, to the constitutional right of amendment and repeal, that it may sue and be sued, complain and defend in any court of law or equity, and that it may make and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the members of the said corporation shall at no time be more in number than seven; that the said George K. McGaw, Jarrett T. Baldwin, John Archer Mitchell, John M. Michael, Morgan Mitchell, C. H. Johnson and Howard H. Mitchell shall be and remain members of the said corporation for the space of one year from the passage of this Act and until their successors, as hereinafter provided, shall be chosen.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the members of the corporation above named shall as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act, hold a meeting for the acceptance of this charter and for an election of officers as hereinafter provided, and shall appoint a day for an election of the members of this corporation, as hereinafter provided; said election to be held not
