

sooner than one year from the date of the passage of this Act, and shall thereafter provide for an annual election of said members on the same day in each year thereafter, and for giving notices of such elections, and a failure to elect shall not prevent a subsequent election.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That annually, after the expiration of one year from the date of the passage of this Act, on such day in each year as may be appointed under section 4 of this Act, the adult members of the congregation of the Grove Presbyterian Church, in Harford county, Maryland, who attend said church and contribute to the maintenance thereof, together with the adults who own one or more lots in said cemetery, and whose names appear on the books of the said corporation as owners of said lots, at the date of said election, shall choose from the adult male members of the Grove Presbyterian Church, in full communion with said church, seven men, who shall, from and after their election, become members of the said corporation and remain such for the space of one year and until their successors are chosen, as herein provided; and as many of said adult members of said church and said adult owners of said lots, as shall attend at any meeting for the purpose of said elections, shall be competent to choose the members aforesaid.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if at any time any of the members of the said corporation shall die, resign or be incapacitated from carrying on his duties as a member of the said corporation, the remaining members of the said corporation shall have the power of electing to membership in the said corporation any persons from among the adult male members of the said Grove Presbyterian Church, in Harford county, Maryland, in full communion with said church, so long as there shall be such, to fill the vacancy in the membership of the said corporation created by the death, resignation or incapacity of the former member of the corporation as aforesaid; said person so elected to remain a member of the said corporation for the unexpired term of the said former member; and if at any time the Grove Presbyterian Church, in Harford county, Maryland, shall cease to exist or there shall no longer be any adult male members in full communion with the same, who shall consent to serve as members of the said corporation, then the members of the said corporation who shall be such at that time when the said church ceases to exist or when there shall no longer be any adult male members in full communion with the said church who will consent to serve as members of the said corporation, shall proceed to fill all vacancies in the membership of the said corporation by electing such male adults as they may