

Agriculturist Commercial Storage Company, be and the same is hereby amended by striking from said section the words "Agriculturist Commercial" and inserting in place thereof the words "Baltimore Steamboat and" so that the corporate title, name and style of said corporation shall be the "Baltimore Steamboat and Storage Company."

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 5, 1908.

CHAPTER 62.

AN ACT to provide for the extension of the time for the forfeiture of the road bed, rights and franchises of the Gapland Turnpike Company to the County Commissioners of Washington county, Maryland.

Whereas a petition was filed on the twenty-sixth day of August, 1907, by John S. Zecher and others against the Gapland Turnpike Company, incorporated, in the Circuit Court for Washington county, to have said court pass an order raising the toll gate and prohibiting the collection of tolls by the company till the said road was put in good condition as provided by the Act of the General Assembly of Maryland; and

Whereas on the seventh day of September of the same year said court passed an order in conformity with said petition, forfeiting the right of said turnpike company to collect tolls till said road bed was put in good condition; and

Whereas since the seventh day of September last it has been impossible, by reason of the scarcity of labor and the bad condition of the winter weather, to put said turnpike road in good condition within six months, as required by the Act of Assembly, and thereby complying with the order of said court; and

Whereas under article 23 of section 355 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland it is provided that if in six months after said order of court forfeiting the right of the turnpike company to collect tolls, the said road bed is not put in good condition, in compliance with the order of court, the said turnpike, with its rights and franchises, shall become the property of the County Commissioners of Washington county; and

Whereas the said County Commissioners are not desirous of taking advantage of said Act of Assembly by possessing said turnpike road, and are willing to have the time of forfeiture extended to November 1, 1908, for said Gapland Turnpike Com-